The provisions of this section shall survive termination of this Agreement.

13.14. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the complete and exclusive statement of the agreement between SAP and Customer in connection with the parties' business relationship related to the subject matter of the Agreement and supersedes all prior agreements, communications, arrangements, promises, assurances, warranties, representations, discussions, collateral contracts and understandings (the "Statements") between the parties (both oral and written) relating to that subject matter and no Statements of any kind, oral or written, shall be binding upon the parties unless incorporated in this Agreement. Each party agrees that in entering into this Agreement it has not relied on and shall have no remedy in respect of any Statements (whether negligently or innocently made) except those expressly set out in this Agreement. Each party agrees that it shall have no rights or remedies which, but for this section, might otherwise be available to it in respect of any such Statements whether made innocently or negligently or otherwise. Nothing in this Agreement shall limit or exclude the liabilities or the rights or remedies of either party that cannot be limited or excluded by law.

The Agreement may be modified solely in writing signed by both parties, except as permitted under the Agreement. Terms and conditions of any Customer-issued purchase order shall have no force and effect, even if SAP accepts or does not otherwise reject the purchase order.

13.15. Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999

Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, nothing in this Agreement shall create or confer (whether expressly or by implication) any rights or other benefits whether pursuant to the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act UK 1999 or otherwise in favour of any person not a party hereto.
