- 9.1 Use of Confidential Information. Confidential Information shall not be reproduced in any form except as required by the receiving party to perform its obligations under this Agreement. Any reproduction of any Confidential Information of the other shall remain the property of the disclosing party and shall contain any and all confidential or proprietary notices or legends which appear on the original. With respect to the Confidential Information of the other, each party: (a) shall take all Reasonable Steps (defined below) to keep all Confidential Information strictly confidential; and (b) shall not disclose any Confidential Information of the other to any person other than its bona fide individuals whose access is necessary to enable it to exercise its rights hereunder. As used herein "Reasonable Steps" means those steps the receiving party takes to protect its own similar proprietary and confidential information, which shall not be less than a reasonable standard of care. Confidential Information of either party disclosed prior to execution of this Agreement shall be subject to the protections afforded hereunder.
- 9.2 Exceptions. The above restrictions on the use or disclosure of the Confidential Information shall not apply to any Confidential Information that: (a) is independently developed by the receiving party without reference to the disclosing party's Confidential Information, or is lawfully received free of restriction from a third party having the right to furnish such Confidential Information; (b) has become generally available to the public without breach of this Agreement by the receiving party; (c) at the time of disclosure, was known to the receiving party free of restriction; or (d) the disclosing party agrees in writing is free of such restrictions.

Neither party shall use the name of the other party in publicity, advertising, or similar activity, without the prior written consent of the other, except that Licensee agrees that SAP may use Licensee's name in customer listings and to analyze and leverage details from this Agreement (e.g., to forecast product demand), as part of SAP's marketing efforts (including without limitation reference calls and site visits at times mutually agreeable to the parties, press testimonials, site visits, SAPPHIRE participation). SAP will make reasonable efforts to avoid having the reference activities unreasonably interfere with Licensee's business. Licensee agrees that SAP may share information on Licensee with its Affiliates for marketing and other business purposes and that it has secured appropriate authorizations to share Licensee employee contact information with SAP as needed.

10 Feedback.

Licensee may be invited to participate in certain evaluations, presentations, meetings, surveys or discussions (collectively, "Discussions") for the purpose of informing Licensee of SAP's business and technology direction, and to allow Licensee (or as used herein includes Licensee's affiliates), at its sole discretion, to provide SAP (or as used herein SAP SE or other SAP entity) with input, comments or suggestions from Licensee, regarding SAP's business and technology direction and/or the possible creation, modification, correction, improvement or enhancement of the software, products and/or services of SAP, (collectively "Feedback"). Licensee grants to SAP SE a non-exclusive, perpetual, irrevocable, worldwide, transferable, royalty-free license, with the right to sublicense through multiple tiers, under all relevant Licensee Intellectual Property Rights, to use, publish, disclose, perform, copy, make, have made, use, modify, create derivative works, distribute, sell, offer for sale and otherwise benefit from Feedback in any manner and via any media. Content of Discussions may include areas outside the scope of Services and may relate to any SAP software, products, solutions and/or services. Confidential Information disclosed or made available by SAP, or Licensee during Discussions may only be used for the purpose of the Discussions and shall be protected from unauthorized use and disclosure in accordance with Section 9 of this these GTC. Licensee acknowledges that the information related to software, products, services, business or technology plans of SAP, disclosed during the Discussions, is only intended as possible strategies, developments, and functionalities and is not intended to bind SAP to any particular course of business, product strategy, and/or development.

11 Warranty.

- 11.1 SAP warrants that its Services shall be performed in a professional workman-like manner by Consultants with the skills reasonably required for the Services.
- 11.2 SAP warrants that for thirty (30) days following provision of the Deliverables will materially conform with the specifications for that Deliverable in accordance with the respective Service Description or Scope Document. For clarity, the warranty period for Deliverables (if any) resulting from any subscription based Services will in no event exceed the termination date of the subscription based Services.
- 11.3 SAP does not warrant error-free or uninterrupted operation of any Service or Deliverable or that SAP will correct all non-conformities. The warranty shall not apply if the alleged warranty breach is caused by a modification to the Deliverable, Licensee or third-party software.
- 11.4 Licensee shall notify SAP within thirty (30) days of provision of the Service or Deliverable in writing of the alleged warranty breach and provide SAP with a precise description of the problem and all relevant information reasonably necessary for SAP in order to rectify such warranty breach.
- 11.5 Provided Licensee has notified SAP in accordance with section 11.1 of a warranty breach and SAP validates the existence of such warranty breach, SAP will, at its option:
- 11.5.1 re-perform the applicable Services or Deliverable

11.5.2 refund the fee paid or reallocate quota for the specific non-conforming Service or Deliverable

This is Licensee's sole and exclusive remedy for a warranty breach.

11.6 SAP and its licensors disclaim all warranties express or implied or statutory, including without limitation, any implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose except to the extent that any warranties implied by law cannot be validly waived.

11.7 Subject to clause 11.6, if SAP is in breach of a condition or warranty implied by the Competition and Consumer Law Act 2010, SAP's liability is limited to: (i) where SAP supplied services, the cost of having the services supplied again, and (ii) where SAP supplied goods, the repair or replacement of the goods or the supply of equivalent goods.

12 Third Party Claims.

12.1 SAP shall defend (at its sole expense) Licensee against claims brought against Licensee by any third party alleging that Licensee's use of the Deliverables, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Agreement, constitutes an infringement or misappropriation of a patent claim(s), copyright, or trade secret rights. SAP will pay damages finally awarded against Licensee (or the amount of any settlement SAP enters into) with respect to such claims. This obligation of SAP shall not apply if the alleged infringement or misappropriation results from (a) use of the Deliverables in conjunction with any other software, services, or any product, data or apparatus that SAP did not provide; or (b) anything Licensee provides including configurations, instructions or specifications; (c) a modification of the Deliverable by Licensee or by a third party on behalf of Licensee or (d) any use not permitted by the Agreement.

12.2 In the event a claim under Section 12.1 is made or in SAP's reasonable opinion is likely to be made, SAP may, at its sole option and expense: (i) procure for Licensee the right to continue using the Deliverable under the terms of the Agreement; or (ii) replace or modify the Deliverable to be non-infringing without material decrease in functionality. If SAP provides written notice to Licensee that the foregoing options are not reasonably available, SAP or Licensee may terminate the Agreement

12.3 Licensee shall defend SAP and its affiliated companies against claims brought against SAP by any third party arising from or related to (i) any Licensee use of the Services in violation of any applicable law or regulation; (ii) an allegation that the Customer Data, Licensee's use of the Services or anything Licensee has provided to SAP including access to third party software or proprietary information violates, infringes or misappropriates the rights of a third party. The foregoing shall apply regardless of whether such damage is caused by the conduct of Licensee and/or its named users or by the conduct of a third party using Licensee's access credentials.

12.4 The obligations under this Section 12 are conditioned on (a) the party against whom a third party claim is brought timely notifying the other party in writing of any such claim, provided however that a party's failure to provide or delay in providing such notice shall not relieve a party of its obligations under this Section 12 except to the extent such failure or delay prejudices the defense; (b) the party who is obligated hereunder to defend a claim having the right to fully control the defense of such claim; and (c) the party against whom a third party claim is brought reasonably cooperating in the defense of such claim. Any settlement of any claim shall not include a financial or specific performance obligation on or admission of liability by the party against whom the claim is brought, provided however that SAP may settle any claim on a basis requiring SAP to substitute for the Services any alternative substantially equivalent non-infringing services. The party against whom a third party claim is brought may appear, at its own expense, through counsel reasonably acceptable to the party obligated to defend claims hereunder. Neither party shall undertake any action in response to any infringement or misappropriation, or alleged infringement or misappropriation that is prejudicial to the other party's rights.

12.5 The provisions of this Section 12 state the sole, exclusive, and entire liability of the parties, their Affiliates and their licensors to the other party, and is the other party's sole remedy, with respect to third party claims covered hereunder and to the infringement or misappropriation of third-party intellectual property rights.

13 Limitation of Liabilities.

14 Assignment.

Licensee may not, without SAP's prior written consent, assign, delegate, pledge, or otherwise transfer this Agreement, or any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, or the Work Products and Deliverables or SAP Confidential Information, to any party, whether voluntarily or by operation of law, including by way of sale of assets, merger or consolidation. SAP may (i) assign this Agreement to any of the SAP SE Affiliates or (ii) subcontract all or part of the work to be performed under this Agreement to a qualified third party.

- 15.7 Governing Law. This Agreement and any claims arising out of or relating to this Agreement and its subject matter shall be governed by and construed under the laws of New South Wales, without reference to its conflicts of law principles. Licensee shall not grant SAP access to Licensee systems or personal information (of Licensee or any third party) unless such access is essential for the performance of Services under the Agreement. The parties agree that no breach of this provision shall be deemed to have occurred in the event of SAP non-conformance with the aforementioned safeguard but where no personal information has been compromised.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have so agreed.
