PART 1 – General Terms and Conditions

Article 1 Non-Exclusivity; Freedom of Action

1. The Parties' obligations under any part of this Agreement are non-exclusive. SAP is not precluded from marketing, licensing, positioning, providing and distributing SAP Products through other partners. Nothing in this Agreement prohibits or restricts either Party's right to develop, make, use, market, license, position, provide and distribute software, cloud services, maintenance services, subscription services or other services, documents, materials or other products similar to or competitive with those of the other Party as long as it does not thereby breach its confidentiality obligations or any other part of this Agreement.
2. Partner acts in its own name, at its own risk and for its own account for the performance of any activities arising under any part of this Agreement. The Parties are therefore independent contractors and do not act as agents or representatives of each other. Neither Party is entitled, to hold itself out as representing the other Party or to make any statement or give any undertaking on behalf of the other Party.
3. This Agreement must not be construed as creating a partnership, joint venture, agency relationship or granting a franchise under any applicable laws.

Article 2 Confidentiality

1. Confidential Information must not be used or reproduced in any form except as required to accomplish the intent of this Agreement. Any reproduction of any Confidential Information of a party disclosing the information ("Disclosing Party") remains the property of the Disclosing Party and must contain any and all confidential or proprietary notices or legends which appear on the original.

5. The above restrictions on the use and disclosure of the Confidential Information do not apply to any Confidential Information that:

Partner must afford SAP and any other member of the SAP Group such assistance as may be necessary for SAP or any other member of the SAP Group to obtain at SAP Group's expense the appropriate registrations for protection in any chosen country.

3. SAP must inform Partner without undue delay if SAP suspends the delivery of any or all SAP Products due to the reasons set out in this Article 6 (SAP's obligation to deliver) no. 2.

4. SAP's right to suspend the delivery does not mean that any part of this Agreement is terminated. Article 9 Audit

1. In the event that SAP has justified reasons to believe that a breach of any part of this Agreement has occurred, SAP will request Partner to comment and – where applicable – provide sufficient evidence to show that such a breach has not occurred. Any change to these documents will become effective on the date indicated in the document itself or if no such date is indicated, upon the earliest of (i) it being published on SAP's partner-dedicated website or (ii) it otherwise being provided by a member of the SAP Group to the Partner. With regard to any order for a SAP Product, the Price List that was effective on that point in time when Partner places a completely and correctly filled-out order for the relevant SAP Product with SAP is decisive. Existing quotes provided by SAP to Partner will be honored for the time that the quote is valid or in case the quote does not contain a validity date for the time during which the quote can reasonably be expected to be accepted.
2. SAP reserves the right to implement programmatic changes (applicable to all Partners or – in the event of model specific changes – to all affected Partners) by changing any or all parts of this Agreement (in particular by replacing parts of it with an updated version), including, without limitation, any SAP PartnerEdge Model (in particular its Specific Terms and Conditions), the PartnerEdge GTCs, the PartnerEdge Program Guide, the PartnerEdge Branding Guide, the RSPI and any other guide or agreement concluded under or in connection with any part of this Agreement as may be reasonably required and consistent with SAP's practices.
3. SAP will give Partner at least three months' prior notice in writing or in any other documented form of changes to any or all parts of this Agreement as set out in this Article 12 (Changes to Terms) no. 2. Unless otherwise stated in the notice, the notice will become effective after three months ("Change Period").

If the justified interests of Partner are negatively affected by any of these changes, Partner is entitled to terminate the affected part of this Agreement with effect to the expiration of the applicable Change Period. If Partner does not terminate within the applicable Change Period, the changes are deemed to be accepted by Partner. SAP will draw attention to this consequence in the change notice.

4. Any change that SAP reasonably believes to be beneficial to Partner may, at SAP's discretion, become effective upon notice by SAP. Such changes include, but are not limited to, increased discounts, promotions and program enhancements. Should Partner believe a change not to be beneficial, Partner must notify SAP in writing within five days of receipt of such notice that Partner does not agree with SAP's assumption and state the reasons why the change would not be beneficial to Partner. In such case, this Article 12 (Changes to Terms) no. 3 applies.
5. SAP may elect to discontinue the distribution of any or all components or functionality of any or all of the SAP Products.

Article 13 Export Regulations

SAP Products and parts of SAP Products (e.g. new versions, releases, updates, upgrades, patches, fixed or correction of a software product) are subject to Export Laws of various countries, including, without limitation, the laws of Bulgaria, the United States, the EU, Ireland and Germany. Partner will not submit any SAP Product or parts thereof to any government agency for licensing consideration or other regulatory approval without the prior written consent of SAP and that it will not export, re-export or import any SAP Product or parts thereof to countries, persons or entities prohibited by any applicable Export Law. In that context, Partner is responsible for complying with all applicable Export Laws. Partner will take all necessary actions and precautions to ensure that any permitted distributor, reseller, end user and other customer complies with the Export Law.

2. If SAP or any other member of the SAP Group wants to deliver and/or grant access to any SAP Product or parts thereof to Partner or directly to an End User, Partner will support SAP and any other member of the SAP Group in obtaining any required authorization, approval or other consent from the competent authorities by providing any necessary or useful declarations or other necessary or useful information, e.g. End User certificates, as may be requested by SAP or any other member of the SAP Group. Note: The delivery of and/or granting of access to any or all SAP Products or parts thereof may be subject to the prior obtaining of export or import authorizations or both from the competent authorities and that this process may (i) considerably delay or prevent the delivery of and/or granting of access to any or all SAP Products or parts thereof; (ii) impact SAP's ability or the ability of any other member of the SAP Group to provide Maintenance Services, Cloud Services Subscription Services, Services or other services and (iii) lead to SAP or any other member of the SAP Group having to limit, suspend or terminate Partner's and/or End User's access to Maintenance Services, Cloud Services Subscription Services, Services or other services.

3. If Partner wants to deliver and/or grant access to any SAP Product or parts thereof directly to an End User, it is Partner's sole responsibility to obtain any required authorization, approval or other consent from the competent authorities to comply with any applicable Export Law. SAP assumes no responsibility or liability for Partner's failure to obtain any such required authorization, approval or other consent. In case SAP or any other member of the SAP Group delivers and/or grants access to any SAP Product or parts thereof directly to an End User, this Article 13 (Export Regulations) no. 2 applies especially, without limitation, regarding the provision of Maintenance Services, Cloud Services, Subscription Services, Services or other services. SAP will, upon Partner's reasonable request, provide any required information regarding a SAP Product or parts thereof originally provided by SAP or any other member of the SAP Group to Partner. SAP or any other member of the SAP Group may not be able to deliver and/or grant access to a SAP Product or parts thereof to the Partner in case the export, re-export or import of a SAP Product or parts thereof to End User is prohibited by any applicable Export Law.

4. Neither SAP nor any other member of the SAP Group assumes any responsibility or liability:

- a) for any delay caused in the delivery and/or granting of access to any or all SAP Products or parts thereof due to export or import authorizations or both having to be obtained from the competent authorities;
- b) if any required authorization, approval or other consent for the delivery of and/or granting of access to any or all SAP Products or parts thereof cannot be obtained from the competent authorities;
- c) if the delivery of and/or granting of access to any or all SAP Products or parts thereof is prevented due to applicable Export Laws; and
- d) if access to Maintenance Services, Cloud Services Subscription Services, Services or other services has to be limited, suspended or terminated due to applicable Export Law.

5. SAP may terminate any or all part of this Agreement with one month's prior written notice if SAP or any relevant member of the SAP Group may not deliver or grant access to the SAP Products to Partner due to an embargo, trade sanction or other comparable restrictive measure, which is expected to be in place for six months or longer.

4. Partial Invalidity. If any provision of this Agreement is or becomes wholly or in part illegal, invalid or unenforceable, the illegality, invalidity or unenforceability of such provision will not affect the other provisions of this Agreement, which will remain in full force and effect. This will also apply in cases of contractual gaps.
