

Ready for the GDPR, Ready for the Digital Economy

Address your GDPR requirements and accelerate your digital transformation journey

99

Articles in the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)¹

57%

Of organizations are still in the process of achieving GDPR compliance²

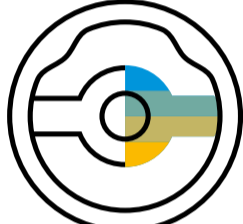

€20 million

Potential penalty for noncompliance, or 4% of annual global revenue, whichever is greater³

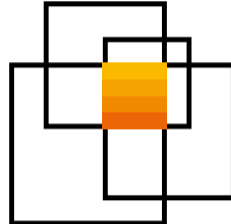

The GDPR redefines personal data privacy for the digital age.

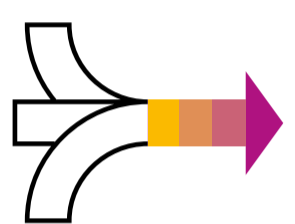

Protects personal data of EU citizens

Gives Control to data subjects over their processed data

Unifies the duties and responsibilities of controllers and processors

Simplifies how data is collected and processed

The regulation is an opportunity to transform how you handle data and manage risk and compliance.

46%

Higher revenue growth for organizations that recognize information as a strategic key asset⁴

50%

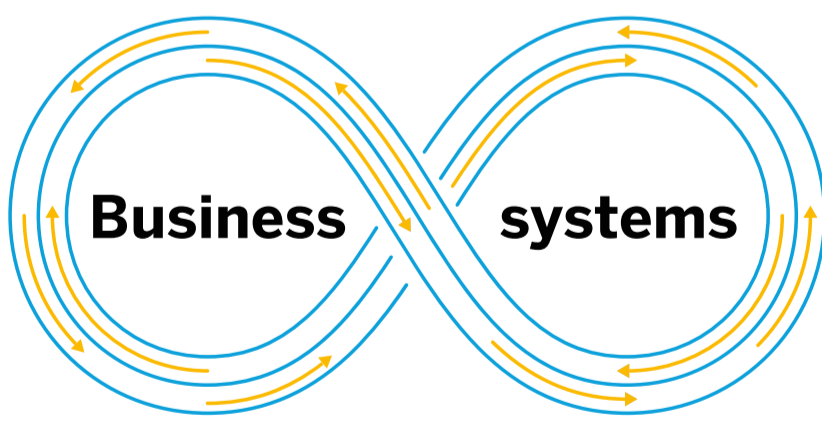

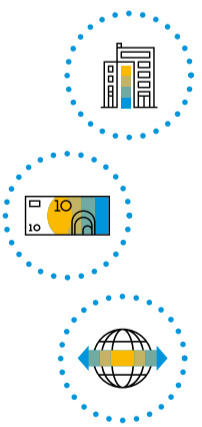

Decrease in audit cycle time with automated and continuous management of controls⁵

SAP and our partners have an extensive portfolio of solutions for information excellence and compliance throughout the personal data lifecycle.

SAP® Process Control application

Governance, risk, compliance, and security solutions

SAP Access Control application

SAP Information Lifecycle Management component

Database and data management solutions

SAP Data Services and SAP Information Steward software

Acquisition → Processing → Archiving → Deletion

Learn more

Download the info brief

Read the blog

Contact SAP