THE BEST RUN

Summary

The recent outbreak of COVID-19 has forced many organizations to quickly implement remote working policies to protect the health and safety of works, as well as the security of IT systems. To support your success in doing so, SAP is offering this completely free training content.

The learning paths in this program are designed to help establish best practice in remote work, maintain highest levels of hygiene and mental wellness for works, and develop leadership during times of change and challenge.

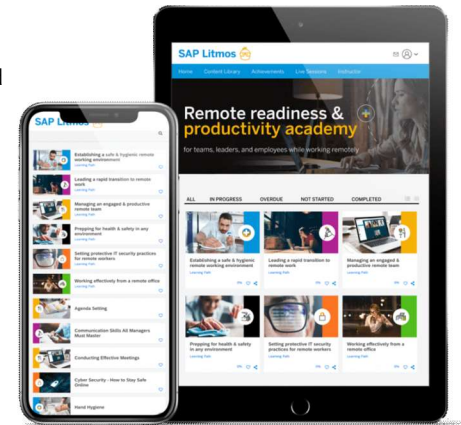

SAP Litmos is committed to supporting and helping you navigate unprecedented circumstances. We built a free resource to aid organizations in transitioning their workforces from in-office to at-home work. This library of off-the-shelf training courses is available through June 2020 to anyone who needs it – not just SAP Litmos customers – so please share it with others who may benefit.
