North America Management Team

ANGELIQUE SLAGLE
Head of SAP Human Experience Management Line of Business
SAP North America

Angelique Slagle is the head of SAP's Human Experience Management (HXM) Line of Business in North America. With an emphasis on customer success, she is responsible for driving HXM sales and the go-to-market strategy, as well as overseeing core operations including pipeline development, demand management, and revenue growth and acceleration.

Angelique brings more than 20 years' experience in the technology space ranging from start-ups to some of the largest software companies around the globe before joining SAP in 2011. At SAP, she has built high-performing teams and developed go-to-market strategies leveraging the entire eco-system inclusive of SAP and partner teams.

Her passion for creating diversity across the business and continuous focus on customer advocacy has been paramount to her success. With her most recent role as regional vice president for SAP SuccessFactors covering U.S. Regulated Industries, she has applied that strategy to support the People Agenda of key customers including Lockheed Martin, State of Arkansas, and Southern California Edison.

Angelique serves on the board of SAP's Black Employee Network (BEN) group and the North America Emerging Talent Advisory board, a platform for early talent at SAP to enact change across the business.

Originally from New Jersey, Angelique has traded in the city life for farm life and now resides in Western North Carolina region with her husband, Carl and their four children. In her free time, Angelique enjoys running, cooking, gardening, and advocating for the homeless, as well as supporting local nonprofits in support of social justice.
